VOCABULARY TASK CARDS

CARD	ANSWER	MEANING	CONTEXT CLUE EXPLANATION
1	C	To scowl or stare with ill intent	In the story, Jordan was looking in the narrator’s direction. Jordan was not happy so I inferred it was a scowl.
2	C	To pick up something quickly	I was able to visualize Emily quickly grabbing the backpack and running towards the bus because she was in a rush and excited.
3	B	Someone who is unable to correct their behaviors; repeat offenders	I saw the words difficult, constant and that lead me to understand the meaning of the word incorrigible.
4	A or B	To speak softly with love and kindness	In the story the grandmother is trying to comfort her granddaughter. This make me visualize that the grandmother was speaking softly to make her feel better.
5	A or D	Uncontrollable and extreme	In the story, the author says that the clown laughed with an uncontrollable cackle, and uncontrollable and hysterically are synonyms.
6	D	Noisy disturbance	In the story the author mentions that the peace and quiet of the day was gone because the siblings were up and peace and commotion are antonyms.

VOCABULARY TASK CARDS

CARD	ANSWER	MEANING	CONTEXT CLUE EXPLANATION
7	A or B	Lacking color or luster	The author notes the definition by using commas and inserted the word dull.
8	C	The furnishing of a room	The author gives examples in the text following the word.
9	B or D	To not follow the rules or authority	You can use word parts to understand the word disobedient. Dis is a latin prefix that mean apart or not. In this case it means not because the puppy does not listen.
10	D	To move quickly and easily	When reading this story, I could visualize the kid moving quickly and with ease. He would be really athletic, and many would find that impressive.
11	B	A careless mistake	The brothers in the story stated they got in trouble which made me think they made mistakes. It also stated that they crashed into the crystal bowl and they didn't mean to do it so it was an accident.
12	A	Rare; isolated; occasional	At the beginning of the sentence the author says rare and I made a connection that rare is the definition because it seems like mom doesn't have off days very often.
